

WISHING TREE

KHON KAEN RESORT

Wishing Tree is a stylish resort on the banks of the Chi River, set in a peaceful riverside woodland habitat ten kilometers south of downtown Khon Kaen in the culturally rich Northeast of Thailand (Isaan region).

The Wishing Tree represents the provincial tree called the “Pink Shower Tree” (Cassia Bakeriana) which means providing prosperity and preventing decline. The resort embraces the natural beauty of the surrounding area with the added charm of the Chi River, lush greenery, traditional rice fields and the Northeastern way of life.

All of the 48 rooms and villas are designed to embrace the natural beauty of the surrounding Northeastern way of life by using regional architecture and subtle textured details and also being environmental friendly. The rooms are spacious with high ceilings, furnished with wood and modern appliances provided. All units are provided with an amazing view, overlooking the river and landscaped gardens as the private veranda.

The Wishing Tree Restaurant offers all day dining both European and traditional North Eastern Thai cuisine, a work out at our gym with full equipment, a variety of treatments and therapies at Chivana Spa, or just relax by the pool as the sunsets over the Chi River.

Our ploenprom conference hall is ideal for medium sized meetings, standing cocktail parties and wedding functions. At 160 sq m and can accommodate up to 120 persons. The conference room is fully equipped with conference facilities such as audio visual equipment, screens, and LCD Projector. Traditional Isaan weddings can be arranged together with the bridegroom parade featuring Thai traditional dancers and long drums. The parade will include the groom going to the bridal area to honor his bride before the ceremony takes place.

Enjoy various activities such as silk cocoon soap making, herbal compress balls, batik painting and 3D coloring for kids. Outdoor activities are also available such as bicycling, jogging along the resort track, vegetable gardening, picking your own salads from our organic garden, or enjoying feeding and playing with our variety of local farm and demonstrated animals.

Wishing Tree- Isaan’s hospitality with unique experience, why stay anywhere else?
